ID expressed her appreciation of support from the Community Council for the website. It's now set up for on-line booking and available for the school and church to use.

In April the Pictish Stones will be unveiled again for the summer and the Hall Committee hope to have the Pictish room at the back of the hall open from time to time so visitors can see the exhibits.

The WC is open to the public but for the disabled WC to be used there needs to be a mechanism to lock the hall doors for security.

There's a darts evening on 6 April. All welcome.

Discussion took place about the potential to get Superfast Broadband and the potential to have the Digital Champion come to a meeting to discuss this.

AOCB

1. TS asked if there had been any major incidents caused by the snow, but it appeared there had been none. A great sense of community spirit had been experienced as people looked out for each other.

2. Cllr Braes asked if the pavements had been cleared of snow; there's no statutory obligation for the Councils to clear pavements of snow. He reported that there are two snow blowers at Tayside Contracts and there's a possibility of snow blowers being bought for tractors.

3. Discussion took place about the potential to purchase electronic signs that read the speed of traffic with the instruction to slow down, if necessary.

4. Kirsteen Hair, MP, is hosting an evening for Community Councils at Forfar Community Council on 5 April at 7pm.

5. The potential for three schools to close is being explored by Angus Council.
